Background

The GFI (Grand Forks International) baseball tournament organizing committee sent a letter to the City asking for permission to undertake accessibility improvements at James Donaldson Park prior to this year's 37th tournament. The goal is to make the park more accessible for wheelchairs, baby strollers, and anyone who may experience difficulty navigating through the park. The committee approached a local construction company that agreed to provide the materials and labour for paving pathways as their sponsorship to the GFI. Urban Systems Ltd., the City's engineering firm, have agreed to provide in-kind engineering design support as their contribution to the community. CannaFest organizers have indicated they would like to work with the GFI Organizing Committee to improve the front gate entranceways and is willing to provide funding for this project.

The GFI Tournament Organizing Committee thanks the City for its continued support of the event and hopes the City will welcome these new upgrades to the facility.
