Dear Mayors and Regional District Chairs:

My caucus colleagues and I are looking forward to seeing you all again at this year's Union of British Columbia Municipalities (UBCM) Convention in Vancouver from September 23-27.

Resiliency and Change, the theme for the 2019 Convention, is indeed an appropriate focus as communities throughout our province are experiencing change on issues ranging from the impacts of climate change to economic pressures. UBCM provides a wonderful opportunity to listen to one another, share ideas, and find new approaches to ensure our communities thrive. With local, provincial, federal, and First Nations governments working together, we can continue to build a better BC.

I look forward to being part of your convention, meeting with many of you, and exploring ways that we can partner together to address common issues.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayors and Regional District Chairs:

I am pleased to provide you with the following information regarding the process for requesting a meeting with me during the annual UBCM Convention taking place this year from September 23 to 27, 2019 in Vancouver, British Columbia.

You will receive a separate letter from the Honourable John Horgan, Premier, containing information about the online process for requesting a meeting with Premier Horgan and other Cabinet ministers.

To get the most out of your delegation's meeting with me, it would be helpful for you to provide as much detail as possible in the online form on the topic you wish to discuss. This will enable me to have a better understanding of your delegation's interests so that our discussions can be more productive.

Ministry staff will soon email you the Provincial Appointment Book. This lists all government, agency, commission, and corporation staff who are expected to be available to meet with delegates at the Convention, as well as details on how to request a meeting with staff online.

This will be my third UBCM Convention as Minister responsible for local government, and I appreciate the collaboration and partnerships that we have built over these last several years. I look forward to hearing more about your challenges and accomplishments as we continue our work together to make life better for all British Columbians.

Sincerely,

Selina Robinson
Minister
